

YOU NEVER MISS the water 'til the pump shuts down . . . and that goes double on a hot afternoon such as last Monday. That was when the electrical controls at the Mokena pumping station decided to balk. Water was shut off in the village for two hours—2 to 4—until a big tractor was obtained at the Swanberg Implement firm and put to work at the well site. A belt was run from the power take-off on the tractor to a pulley on the pump. You can see it jutting out from the pump in the lower picture that was taken Monday night as crews worked to restore the pump to normal. The central figure there is Dick Schlaak, of the J.P. Miller Artesian Well Co., a specialist on control problems. At the right is Doc White, of the Mokena maintenance force. In the picture above are Mayor Charles Swanberg (left) and Trustee Marvin Weitendorf, water commissioner, standing alongside the tractor. Shortly after 8 o'clock repairs were completed.

Still Need Improvement Of Water System, Board Agrees

The Mokena village board is agreed that the water system should be improved but has not determined what method to follow to meet the cost.

On July 11 an election was held on the proposal to issue $85,000 in bonds to pay for the proposed improvement. The bond issue was voted down by 31 votes, 163 to 132.

At its regular meeting last week the village board canvassed the returns and adopted a resolution stating officially that the bond issue had lost by the vote given above.

The board members agreed that extension of the water mains and improvement of the present system, including the storage tank, remains a necessity.

There are three choices to raise the necessary funds for the project:

1. - Increase the water rates.
2. - Do the job by special assessment.
3. - Have another bond referendum.

Increasing the water rates would give the village more revenue to increase the surplus in the revenue bond account so the village could issue more revenue bonds. Persons familiar with the set up of the revenue bonds say that this procedure would encounter numerous obstacles and money would not be immediately forthcoming.

Special assessment bonds, it has been pointed out, are difficult to dispose of and so work done under such arrangement is more expensive.

Another bond referendum could be held later on. The village board members felt that insufficient information was given the public prior to the referendum July 11 and that many did not understand the situation.

The present mains, it was explained, are inadequate to serve the purpose for which they are intended. Some eight inch mains are said to be necessary. Most of the mains that serve the village are of the 4-inch variety, it was explained, and in some sections numerous homes are served with half-inch and three-quarter inch pipes leading off from these 4-inch mains. Persons on such lines find it difficult to get any pressure, it was pointed out.

On Monday afternoon there was a breakdown in the electrical controls of the pump at the village hall and the village was without water from 2 to 4 o'clock with the temperature standing in the 90's. Village crews hooked up the pump with a big farm tractor supplied by Mayor Charles Swanberg from his implement firm, and the storage tank was quickly filled. Repairs were completed Monday night.

The board will open bids the night of Aug. 5, at 8 o'clock, on extension of sewer mains to the new Ordman Stop and Shop food market.

A letter from Harvey T. Nelson, Chicago regional post office department to the village board informed that body that the builder of the Mokena postoffice has been told that postal authorities favored a new sidewalk as proposed by the village. The present walk in front of the postoffice is not of the same grade as the remainder of the walk on Front st.

The board again gave notice that each person or family that occupies a living unit, regardless of how many there may be under the same roof, will each receive a separate water bill.

DID YOU KNOW...

Did you know that smoking one cigarette cancels the amount of vitamin C supplied by one orange? This means one package per day would neutralize about 500 mg of Vitamin C.

Also that summer brings the added stresses of heat, sunburn, rash, perspiring, allergies, diarrhea, and air-conditioning colds.

No wonder you don't feel up to par, this essential vitamin, along with the B-complex vitamins, are not stored by the body, and must be replenished every day.

Sandburg Hires Principal

Evan Hugh Kelley, 47, principal of East J. Sterling Morton high school and junior college for the past six years, has been named assistant to the superintendent in charge of Carl Sandburg high school in Orland Park. He will be the chief administrative officer of the school while G. W. Davidson is on a year's leave to work towards his Ph. D. degree at the University of Illinois.

About 50 candidates were screened before Kelley was hired by the District 230 board of education at a special meeting last Friday.

Kelley, who earned two majors and five minors as an undergraduate, will bring extensive training and experience to Carl Sandburg. For three years he was principal and acting director of the laboratory schools at Indiana university while teaching graduate courses in school administration and public relations.

Prior to that he spent eight years as principal of the John D. Pierce laboratory schools and assistant professor of education at Northern Michigan university, where he was one of the first in the nation to initiate a foreign language program in grades 1-8.

At the two laboratory schools, Kelley helped develop programs in new mathematics, coeducational industrial arts and home economics, team teaching, closed circuit television instruction, language laboratories, and the oral-aural language techniques.

On the graduate level, he has taught core curriculum workshops and courses in school administration and public relations. At the undergraduate level, he has seven years' experience teaching guidance, core curriculum, mathematics for teachers, and audio-visual machines and methods. He has supervised practice teachers in each of these areas.

As an undergraduate, Kelley taught rhetoric and composition for three years at Southern Illinois university and taught boxing for the physical education department for two years. He took two extra courses in practice teaching—working one quarter each in high school mathematics and physics, junior high social science, and middle elementary social science.

Kelley has nearly completed his work for a Ph. D. in school administration, saying he needs "about three weeks' work" to finish his dissertation.

A native of Maplewood, Mo., Kelley spent one year in industry and playing semi-professional baseball before enrolling at Southern Illinois university. Four years later, he had earned majors in mathematics and education, as well as minors in physics, English, history, social sciences, and physical education.

When he graduated in 1938, Kelley was named principal of the Fisk (Mo.) high school. From there he went to Witt (Ill.), where he was principal for three years.

Following that he became superintendent in Rosamond and in Brighton, Ill. He came to J. Sterling Morton in 1958.

Kelley is married and has five children: Nancy Ellyn, 24; Kathleen, 19; Evan H. Jr., 15; Stephen, 12; and Mary Ann, 5.

During the interview Friday night, Kelley told board members that he had already made up his mind that he

4 H ers South Cook Fair

A busy summer for 4-Hers will come to a climax July 31-Aug. 1 at the 18th annual South Cook County 4-H Fair to be held at Francis Field, New Lenox.

Representatives of the 770 4-H members in the area will participate in feats of skill ranging from auto driving to plowing. They will also exhibit the result of long hours of work on garden, animal and other projects. Prizes will be awarded in more than 18 events.

Melvin Hoyer, Route 1, Crete, is executive chairman of the fair. Others directing the event include Milton W. Bettenhausen, 175th st., Orland Township; and Herbert Kohl, Route 1, Matteson.

All 4-H clubs in the area are under sponsorship of the Cooperative Extension Service of the University of Illinois, with William F. Whiteside as Cook County Farm Adviser.

The fair will open Friday afternoon, July 31, at 4 p.m. with driver skill and horsemanship contests. Exhibits and animals will be judged Saturday morning, with an auction of merchandise donated by area stores scheduled for that afternoon.

On Saturday evening the King and Queen of the 4-Hers will be chosen and crowned; trophies will be awarded, and prize animals and products will be auctioned.

The public is invited.

Superintendents At 4-H Fair Are Busy

Checking registration papers and eligibility to show are only two of the many jobs that department superintendents will have to handle at the Will County 4-H fair July 28-30. Some of the other responsibilities will be assisting the judges, recording class winners and lining up the classes to be judged. Superintendents of the 4-H show departments are volunteer local 4-H club leaders who are willing to give much time and effort to make each show better and more interesting for both 4-Hers and spectators.

Reynold Siemsen of Peotone is superintendent of the 4-H poultry show to be held on Tuesday, July 28. Clyde Stauffenberg of Manhattan will be superintendent of the 4-H rabbit show. Glenn Vally New Lenox, is superintendent of the 4-H horse show that evening.

On Wednesday, July 29, Clyde Weber of Monee will handle the 4-H sheep show while Dale Kratzenberg of Frankfort will be superintendent of the 4-H dairy show. Mrs. Virgil Selk, Beecher, will handle all 4-H horticulture exhibits. Mrs. Donald Markwell, Plainfield Mrs. E. C. Olsen, New Lenox and Mrs. Irene Moore, Wilmington will supervise the evening 4-H Dog Show.

George Archibald of New Lenox and Lawrence Meyer of Manhattan will share the beef superintendent duties on Thursday, July 30. Orman Boldt of Lemont will be superintendent of the 4-H swine show.

Summer Programs Keep Kids Busy

For more than 1,200 teenagers in District 230, summer does not mean a vacation from school. They are enrolled in one or more of the summer programs maintained by the board of education.

John F. Jorstad, administrative assistant, said that more than 500 students are enrolled in classes this summer. This is the sixth year of the program, in which each year has seen a new high in enrollment. A little more than 400 students were in classes last summer.

The first summer recreational program has gotten off to a roaring good start, according to Joe Devine, athletic director. More than 300 students and adults are taking advantage of the opportunity to gain skill in golf, bowling, tennis, and a host of other activities. Devine, obviously pleased by the size of the turnout, said that the program meets a real need in the community. Enrollments, for students and adults both, are still open he said.

Aquatic director, Bob Grindey, said that about 600 are scheduled for swimming classes this summer. The program, which has steadily grown over the past four years, provides both swimming instruction and recreational swimming. Although the first week of sessions had to be cancelled because the pool was unroofed in the recent windstorm, the programs got underway last Monday.

All three programs are part of the "open school" policy adopted by the board of education for District 230. Under this policy, the facilities of the school and the special skills of the staff are readily available to the public. W.O. Fisher, superintendent, said that the programs were possible only because of long range planning by the board of education.

"Altho the programs are largely self-supporting," he said, "the school has to stand ready to make up any losses sustained by each program. To do this, we have to have money available and only thru systematic, long-range organization is it possible to squeeze funds out of our budget."

It is this fact, Fisher said, which made the recent defeat of a ceiling of $1.34 on the educational tax rate "especially crushing. That defeat, by only 29 votes, meant that a number of our plans had to be shelved for the time being," he said.

In the meantime, the funds for the summer classes, recreational program and swimming have already been budgeted. And for 1,200 students in this area, summer means something more than lazing around with little to do. For them it means a chance to participate in worthwhile activities.

School Budget On File For Public Inspection

The tentative budget for the Mokena grade schools providing for expenditures totaling $271,721.25, will be on file in the lobby of the Mokena State bank until Aug. 24.

On that date the board of education is to have a public hearing on the budget and is expected to adopt it.

According to Supt. James Ennis, the 1964-65 budget is approximately $72,000 higher than the one for 1963-64, due to the increase in the teaching and custodial staff, a nominal salary increase, cost of operating additional facilities and equipping new classrooms. To this can be added an increase of $20,000 in interest on bonds. The first two interest payments on the bond issue for the new addition at Willow Crest are due this new fiscal year.

In one way, it was pointed out, last year's budget was more than $100,000 greater than the one for 1964-65, because last year's total included $193,000 which represented funds realized thru the bond sale and were carried in the budget so they could be used to meet the construction costs.

Without this $193,000 the total budget for the past year was $200,375. Comparing this with the proposed budget of $271,721.25 one gets the difference of almost $72,000 alluded to previously.

Under the new budget the educational fund is $181,761 as compared to $154,925 for the past year. Payrolls and supplies are met out of this fund.

Previously the district's share of the Illinois Municipal Retirement fund was paid out of the educational fund but this year it will be paid out of a special levy which is expected to produce $2,500.

Transportation costs are estimated at $10,110 for this year as compared to $6,490 the past year. The bond and interest account for the coming year is $40,486.25 as compared to $18,560 last

Zoning Board Of Mokena Will Hear Two Cases

Two hearings are scheduled by the Mokena zoning board of appeals the evening of Aug. 10 at the village hall.

Both have to do with requests for re-classification of property, according to Hans W. Mueller, secretary of the board.

One petition is that of the Grey Realty Co., Wolf rd. It is asking for a change from R-1 (residential) to B-1 (business) for its office site. The property had been classified as business before it became annexed to the village. Under the law when the property was annexed it reverted to residential, hence the request for the change.

In the other case Henry Bottema is asking for a change from single family residence to multiple family for the former Charles Geuther home at Carpenter st. and Schoolhouse rd.

year. The building fund for 1964-65 is $36,864; last year it was $20,400.

Expected increase in receipts is not keeping up with increased expenditures, it was said, and the board is studying possible solutions to the problem.

Three new teachers have been hired at Mokena, bringing the total number of the staff up to 22 and increasing the payroll about $15,000.

Palos Lions Prep For Park District Play-Offs

Posting a 5-0 record in competitive play, the Palos Lions Connie Mack nine is assured of a spot in the Chicago Park District play-offs that begin July 25. The Connie Mack league is rated as one of the strongest in the country.

The Palos squad, which is managed by Jay Smith, has been plagued by injuries, but has been able to mow down the opposition in spite of this.

Doing considerable mound duty is Dave Daniels, an Eisenhower high star. Pat Heniff, of Sandburg, has been sharing pitching duties along with appearances at short-stop. Doug Smith, of Sandburg, also had been doing a stellar job at winning until sidelined by a knee injury.

Jim Richardson, who did an excellent job behind the plate, is catching again this year. Steve Rogers is a first and there are two who can handle second, Bill Hopf and Terry McHenry, newcomers to Connie Mack and doing a good job. Mike Blelic, another Sandburg athlete, is playing third. In the outfield are George DePeder, Jack Hofferica, Gerald Poch and Dave Mueller, all former Sandburg players.

The Palos Lions are looked upon as a major contender in the district playoffs.

Larry Richardson, 12760 S. 81st ct., Palos Park, is president of the Palos Connie Mack League and commissioner representing the Connie Mack teams at district meetings.

L-W Girl Tells More Of Her Travels In Japan

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following are excerpts from letters written to her family by Margie Olson, Mokena, from Japan where she is spending the summer as part of the student exchange program sponsored by the Lions of Lincoln-Way. Margie will be a senior at Lincoln-Way high school in September. She will return from Japan in August. From these letters it was evident that she was still traveling about and had not settled down for a stay of several weeks with the family to whom she has been assigned.)

"I got your letters today. Mr. Maeda sent them from Hitoyoshi. I'm sure by now you have received the box I sent home. The Zori (sandals) and tabi (sock with one toe) are for Mom's birthday. I've been taking lots of pictures and you should also have received the first roll by now. I hope they turned out okay.

"I'm learning lots of Japanese words. I can say 'I'm sorry' three different ways and I can count to 99. 'Raw fish is delicious. All you do is dip it in soya sauce. My all time favorite is sukiyaki. I even had it with raw eggs and it's good that way.

"I'm afraid the people of the USA won't be hearing from me very often. These people keep me hopping all day every day. I'm seldom alone. The Lions in Shimonoeki gave me a notebook so I could keep my impressions and experiences written down.

"Since my last letter was sent to you from the Emperor's room, I'll go on from there. I went to Shimonoeki to stay at the home of an orthopedic surgeon. They gave me a Yukata (summer kimono) and an obi (belt) which I have learned to tie myself. On June 24 I went to a small town called Iizuka where I had five brothers, one sister and three mothers. Two of the mothers were really older sisters who hovered over me. Only one of the brothers really lived there. He is 17; the other four are his friends. We really had a good time together. We played cards and sang. Two of the boys are good artists so they drew quite a few pictures that I have sent home. Another can sing Kabuki songs which are very difficult.

"After I left Iizuka (June 29) I went to Fuknoka with two of my 'mothers'. (Before I left, we had a sukiyaki party). On July 1 I left for Gifu. This was the best time of the trip so far -- I stayed at the home of Hisako Iwamura, L.W.'s exchange student for next year and we became good friends. I have two brothers in Gifu--Tomio and Taishi. Tomi-chan is 23 and Gan san (Taishi) is 21. We had a great time. Tomi plays the piano and Gan-San plays an ancient Japanese horn - the shakohachi. It's a piece of bamboo with holes cut in it. He tried to teach me but in vain. We always wore Yukatas around the house and I even wore mine to Hisako's flower arranging class. I miss them all very much.

"Now I'm in Nagasaki. Today I saw an A-Bomb museum. I was with a girl who was two when it happened. She said she remembered being afraid of airplanes and hiding in a dug-out. She remembers not having enough to eat and standing in line for food. She didn't talk much while we were there, ordinarily she chatters a lot.

"I had to give a speech at the Lions meeting today. It was the second time I gave the same speech. I wish I had written it down sooner - it would have saved a lot of panic-stricken brain-racking. The Japanese don't ask you to give a speech until about five seconds beforehand.

On July 8 I'm to leave Nagasaki. On July 10 Michiko is going to Kumamoto to meet me - I don't exactly know what's to happen on July 9. Before I left for Gifu the Lions told me I would have to pay half the fare so I cashed two travelers checks. When I came back they said they changed their minds and gave me my money back.

"This trip is spoiled by one word - Sayonara. Every time I get settled I have to say that word. I hope I don't get so attached to anyone anymore. I feel so badly when I leave them. I've cried twice - once when I left Tokyo and again in Gifu. My Gifu family gave me a string of natural pearls which are all the same size

Home Building Better

"Single family homes at mid-year continued to show the first real improvement in six years in spite of a relatively slow second quarter," commented Harold P. Halleen, president of Bell Savings and Loan Association.

During the first six months of 1964 permits were issued for 10,077 single family homes compared with 9,821 during the comparable period last year. Homes increased 5% over last year in the suburbs, 4% in the City of Chicago, but remained virtually unchanged in the unincorporated areas.

"If single family home permits for the next six months equal last year's volume, the 1964 single family home annual total will exceed 20,000 units. This will

Couple Recites Vows In Immanuel Lutheran Church

At a 3 o'clock ceremony the afternoon of June 20, wedding bells pealed for the marriage of Miss Marilyn Carol Ambuehl and Glenn W. Bitner in Immanuel Lutheran church in Mokena. Rev. A.J. Bueltmann officiated at the ceremony uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ambuehl of Mokena and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Bitner of Manhattan.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Byron Nelson, church organist, who also accompanied the soloist, Miss Carole Gilmore.

Escorted by her father to an altar decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and carnations, the bride wore a toe-touching gown of white summer satin. Alencon lace appliques accented with seed pearls formed the decor on the fitted bodice and belled skirt that trailed to chapel-length. Her illusion veil was caught to a self fabric rose and her bouquet was of white roses and mums.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Susan Perry of Downers Grove. She wore a street-length gown of frolic blue peau de sole fashioned with cap sleeves, a fitted bodice and belled skirt. She wore an open-crowned pillbox of the same material with a blusher veil and carried a crescent bouquet of tipped blue white carnations.

Gowned identically with the maid of honor were the bridesmaids, Miss Karen Calcutt of Bradford, college roommate of the bride, and Miss Audrey Bitner of Manhattan, sister of the bridegroom. The bride's gown as well as those of the maid of honor and bridesmaids, were designed and fashioned by the mother of the bride.

Jeff Knight of West Chicago served as best man for Mr. Bitner and ushers' duties were handled by Don Richards of Northbrook, Jim Harrington of Chicago, LeRoy Bitner of Cicero and Marvin Gray of Joliet.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ambuehl donned a light blue silk shantung dress with a matching lace jacket and white accessories. Mrs. Bitner, mother of the bridegroom, wore a light blue embroidered linen dress and white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink cymbidium orchids.

A reception was held at the church following the ceremony with Mrs. John Charvat and Miss Shirley Bitner assisting in serving. This was followed by a buffet dinner in the home of the bride's parents. Miss Linda Spangler of Urbana was in charge of the guest book.

Prenuptial parties were given by Mrs. Harold Ambuehl, Mrs. Otto Bormet, Miss Karen Calcutt, Miss Susan Perry, Mrs. John Charvat, Miss Audrey Bitner and the Women's Society of the EUB church in Manhattan.

A rehearsal dinner was given June 19 by Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Bitner.

Handbooks must be finished and turned in by the time of the County Show, it was announced.

It has been decided that the club will paint street signs and house numbers on curbs beginning on Aug 10 at 9 a.m. at the leaders house, Mrs. Diercouff. A check was received by the club from Ed Feeley, the builder as a donation towards their project.

Any donation at the time of the painting will be appreciated. Please support your 4-H club. There will be a cookout following. An archery tour is scheduled for Aug. 26 by Mrs. Diercouff. A picnic will follow with those attending bringing their own lunch. The county show will be held on July 28, 29, and 30. There will be a clothing judging on July 23. Heart Attack Is Fatal To Cecil Krusemark

Funeral services for Cecil J. Krusemark, 44, formerly of Mokena, who died July 11 at his apartment in Bensonville, were conducted last Friday at Truman, Minn.

Truman, Minn. was his birthplace and he was graduated from the high school there in 1937. After attending the University of Minnesota for a year, Mr. Krusemark came to Chicago to take a place with Eastern Airlines as a mechanic. He remained with the company 23 years and was aircraft maintenance foreman at O'Hare field at the time of his death.

During the war he served in British Guiana for Eastern Airlines in the Air Transport Command, and for a time served at the Miami base airport.

Most of his stay in the area was in Mokena where he resided with his sister and an aunt, the late Mrs. Elizabeth Cappel, former Mokena school head. Some months ago he moved to Bensonville to be closer to O'Hare Field.

He was stricken with a heart attack July 11, while he was alone in his apartment.

Removal was to the Hirsch chapel at Tinley Park and the body was taken from there to Truman where services were conducted from Waverly Lutheran church, where he had been baptized and confirmed. Burial was in Waverly cemetery.

Immediate survivors are his sister, Margaret, Mrs. Wesley Cappel of Mokena, and a brother, Meryle Krusemark, of Truman.

Burglars Empty

Birthday Boxes

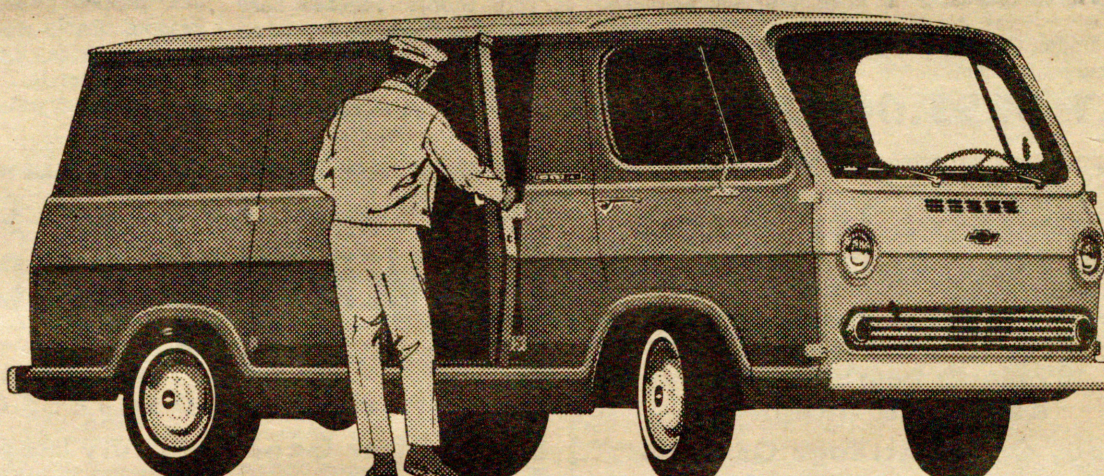

Two "birthday boxes" -- receptacles in which persons having birthdays deposit coins -- were stolen from St. Peter's United Church of Christ at Frankfort Sunday night. The boxes contained about $9.50.

Police Chief Francis Simon said that the burglary apparently was the work of juveniles.

Entry was gained thru a window and the thieves then searched two offices. The birthday boxes were found in a cupboard. Some of the contents of the cupboards had been scattered on the floor.

Frankfort Babe Ruths Tap Sauk Village 2-0

After suffering two crushing defeats last week at the hands of New Lenox and undefeated Peotone, the Frankfort Red and White Babe Ruth team bounced back into the winning column by defeating Sauk Village at the Frankfort Community park last Thursday by a score of 2 to 0.

The many spectators who showed up to watch the game witnessed one of the finest boy's baseball games ever played at Frankfort. Artie Schilling pitched for Frankfort and Paesle pitched for Sauk Village. Schilling retired the first 9 men to face him in order. The lead-off man for Sauk Village reached 1st base on an error in the fourth inning.

The next batter hit a ground ball back to Schilling who turned and fired the ball to Larry Batson at second base for the force out and Batson's relay to first was in time for Frankfort's first double play of the evening. The next batter struck out.

Sauk Village's big threat came in the fifth when the lead-off batter walked and the second man singled. At this point, the score was still tied 0 to 0 and Sauk Village had men on first and second with no outs. Schilling struck out the next batter. The following man hit a ground ball to Frankfort's third baseman, Wayne Francis, who stepped on third for the force out and relayed the ball to first. The throw was high and toward the second base side and it pulled Frankfort's first baseman, Mike McCabe, off the bag. However, McCabe noticed that the base runner had rounded second and immediately fired the ball to Larry Batson who put the tag on the runner attempting to return to second for Frankfort's second double play of the evening and to retire the side.

Sauk Village went down in order in the sixth but again threatened in the seventh. Again their lead-off man reached first base safely on a clean single to right field. The next man hit a sharp ground ball to Pat McCabe, the short stop. Pat came up with the ball, made a perfect flip to Batson covering second and again Batson's relay to first was in time to complete Frankfort's third double play of the evening.

The next batter hit a soft line drive into left field, Pat McCabe turned his back to the plate and raced back glove out-stretched. He barely reached the ball on an all out try but was unable to handle it and it was scored as a hit. Sauk Village's last batter hit a towering fly ball to Lyle Koenig playing right field and Koenig camped under it and put it away for his fourth put out of the game. Schilling received other great defensive support by Frankfort's left and center fielders, Tom Stoner and Jim Vaughn, who were also responsible for unassisted put outs and by Frank Fleck, who caught his first full game of the season.

Not only was Frankfort's defensive good but so was that of Sauk Village. Francis and Stoner had reached base in the first inning on a walk and a single but no man advanced beyond second. Lyle Koenig walked in the second inning with only one out but failed to reach second. Frankfort went down in order in the third but with one out in the fourth, Jim Vaughn singled to right. Pat McCabe reached first on an error and Lyle Koenig followed with a hard hit ball back at Sauk Village's pitcher, who fired the ball to second for the force out and the second baseman relayed to first for Sauk Village's lone double play of the evening. Frankfort again went down in order in the fifth but in the sixth the story was different. Francis led off and grounded out. Batson walked and went to third when Tom Stoner reached base safely and went to second on an error. The next batter struck out and with two outs and two men in scoring position, Pat McCabe came thru with a two run game winning single thru the middle of the diamond.

The total was Frankfort 2 runs, on 3 hits, and one error. Sauk Village no runs, 3 hits, and 3 errors. The spectators gave the teams a standing ovation.

Schilling has now allowed only two runs in the three games he has pitched giving up both runs in the first game and pitching shut outs in the next two.

50-Lap Race To Feature Week's Card

The united auto racing ass'n will present a midget auto championship, 50 lap feature event at Joliet Memorial Stadium, July 25, as a climax to the full program of four heats, a trophy dash and a semi-feature. The competition becomes even more intense with the standings in the championship race at stake.

The quality of the machines and pilots competing each week is remarkable, in that they are so closely matched. One miscue by a driver, a loose bolt somewhere or a slick spot on the track and the race changes hands.

Not only the lion's share of the purse, but a champion's trophy and the traditional victory kiss await the winner.

Huge crowds have thrilled to the record breaking speeds and action on the new one quarter paved oval all season. Early comers get the best seats. Race time 8 p.m. time trials 7 p.m.; one mile west of Joliet, on Rt. 52.

Elliott Wins Close One To Hold Onto Title Race Lead

The 35 lap special midget auto race at Joliet Memorial Stadium was again won by Ray Elliott, Lockport, Saturday, July 18. On the second lap of the feature, Dave Jones, Joliet, lost control of his charger coming out of the #2 corner and spun, bouncing along the wall in the back chute. Cars dodging the mishap sent sheets of water onto the track halting the race.

On the restart, Ray Elliott, needed thru traffic to take a long lead. When Bill Lode, Chicago, blew a tire, the yellow flag brought the field together and Henry Pens moved into second spot. From then on it was an exciting duel for the lead with Elliott winning by only half a car length. Four feature wins in seven starts (one rain-out) gives Ray a substantial grip on the championship lead.

In the semi-feature, a costly mistake cost Bob Clements, Madison, Wis, the win. With victory in easy reach Bob mistook the white flag (indicating one lap to go) for the checkered flag and eased up enough for Geo. McBeath, Villa Park, and Carl Wunschel, Bensonville to drive thru and finish 1-2.

Gary Bettenhausen, son of the late famous Tony Bettenhausen, a former U.A. R.A. driver, warmed up for his first attempt to drive a midget race car. He is slated to make his debut in midget competition July 25 at Joliet Stadium. The U.A. R.A. is proud to welcome this youngster into the ranks and great things are expected of this natural born competitor.

Results: Feature: Ray Elliott, Henry Pens, Joliet, Geo. Kladis, Chicago.

Semi: Geo. McBeath, Carl Wunschel, Bob Clements.

Trophy: Gene Varing, Oak Lawn.

Heat Winners: 1st, Henry Pens, 2nd, Gene Varing, 3rd, George McBeath, 4th, Ray Elliott.

Fast Qualifier: Ray Elliott (time 16:59).

Distaff Golf

BY BIRDIE McDIVOT

Jean Berg with a net 38 and Helen Churchill with a net 40 won first and second for the golf balls this week at Willow Run Women's Golf Club. Jean has just had her handicap figured in time to be a winner. She was also a very amazed golfer when she cleared #9 water hole and landed in the cup on the green. Nice shooting.

I also hear that there was quite a mix-up with balls on #3. If it gets any worse, we'll have to have the balls marked with signatures. I hear that some of the girls were even looking down the gopher holes.

Next week third and fourth place will be awarded the golf balls.

See you next week?

Deuces Get Revenge: Beat Bombers 16-8

The Mokena Bombers blew a two run lead going into the last inning Friday night at Community Park, and lost to the New Lenox Deuces 16-8. Going into the seventh inning Mokena was leading 6 to 4 when the rain came down. After a 20 minute delay, the game was resumed with New Lenox scoring 12 runs as the Bombers were slipping and sliding in the muddy field. New Lenox scored 4 runs in the first inning, then were blanked until the fatal seventh inning.

Sunday afternoon the Lounge Bombers at Mokena Park bounced back to defeat a fine Oak Lawn team, 18-9.

Friday, July 24 at 6:30 p.m. the Bomber's again play New Lenox at Mokena Park, with New Lenox being the home team. Sundays opponents are not yet decided.

The Working Classes

J. A. WARD

One of the most important parts of job hunting is providing the best personal references. These should be individuals who have know you and your family for several years. However, before using anyone as a personal reference, you should advise them that you are using their name and outline the type of position you are applying for. This advance notice will assure you that the persons you plan to use as references will answer promptly any inquiries sent them...It also gives them some time to prepare their letter of reference.

Let's suppose that you are asked to write a letter of recommendation for a friend or former employee.
If they are someone you think well of, you may be tempted to dash off a glowing affirmation of their intelligence and skill...Such glowing testimonials are a nickel a dozen. They may hurt the applicant and at best, accomplish very little.

It takes skill to compose a forceful and persuasive letter. Most employers look at a job application from many points of view. A good reference letter to be effective should cover these basic points --
